Cassandra Pullos is a Collaborative Family Lawyer, Registered Mediator and Accredited Family Law Specialist. Cassandra was one of the first trained Collaborative Lawyers in Queensland and has spent the past 10 years assisting clients in collaborative matters. Cassandra was the founding President of Qld Collaborative Law and a committee member for the 1st 10 years. She has served on numerous committees of the IACP, was selected as the only person outside North America to participate in their first Leadership Academy and has been instrumental in bringing collaborative practice to Australia. She has recently been elected as Vice President of the newly formed Australian Association of Collaborative Professionals. She is the founding partner at Pullos Lawyers, a leading Queensland boutique Family Law practice.

John Thynne is a Forensic Accountant with Vincents Chartered Accountants. He is a trained Collaborative practitioner, mediator and business valuation specialist. He is an experienced collaborative trainer and among the busiest financial neutrals working in collaborative practice in QLD. He has developed significant expertise and customised tools to assist parties and practitioners in the collaborative process. John is also an executive member of the Qld Collaborative Law Committee.

Dr Anne Purcell is one of 12 invited members of the global training faculty for the International Association of Collaborative Practitioners (IACP) and the sole representative from the Southern Hemisphere. She trains collaborative practitioners locally and internationally, is a long-standing committee member of Qld Collaborative law and works as a collaborative team member as a communication professional or 'coach'. She brings her background in education, psychology and mediation to the role of family neutral to assist parties and professionals during the collaborative process
